False Bomb Threat on Ferry

On Monday June 12, 2006 at about 2:30 p.m. King County Sheriff's Office Dispatch received a 911 phone call from a subject who told dispatchers that there was a bomb on the Kingston Ferry. At the time the call came in, the ferry Puyallup was docked at Kingston. The 911 call was traced to a residence in Shoreline.

Shoreline Police responded to the residence and took the subject into custody. It is believed that the subject has mental health issues.

The threat was determined to be non-credible. There was no bomb on the ferry. At this time ferry operations on the Kingston – Edmonds route are back to normal operation.

Detectives from the Washington State Patrol Criminal Investigation Division are conducting the investigation.
